

Noor Inayat Khan: British Secret Agent

Background of parents Answer: Initials:	Related to Answer: Initials:	Date and place of birth Answer: Initials:	This entitled Noor to a British passport Answer: Initials:	Fled to GB when Germans took over France in this year Answer: Initials:
Date family arrived in Britain after leaving France Answer: Initials:	In Nov 1940 Noor joined this organisation Answer: Initials:	Took this Anglicised name when joined the WAAF Answer: Initials:	Trained as one of these in WAAF Answer: Initials:	Had to be able to send secret messages in this code Answer: Initials:
Became a secret agent for this organisation Answer: Initials:	Date she was sent to France as a wireless operator Answer: Initials:	Reputed life expectancy of a SEO agent once on enemy soil Answer: Initials:	Other members of her unit captured by this group Answer: Initials:	Noor was given this option but she turned it down Answer: Initials:
Acted as an essential link between these two cities Answer: Initials:	Captured by Germans because betrayed by Answer: Initials:	Labelled as one of these and kept in this way Answer: Initials:	Length of time interrogated by the Germans Answer: Initials:	Told the Germans these during interrogation Answer: Initials:
Number of times tried to escape Answer: Initials:	Sent to Germany when refused to sign this: Answer: Initials:	Executed in Sept 1944 using this method Answer: Initials:	Awarded this posthumously (after she died) for her bravery Answer: Initials:	Noor one of this many women to get this award Answer: Initials: